

the circumstances which I was brought to be in, magnified on Monday when you left Ark's.
Well in your next letter you must tell me if you have enjoyed yourself and what kind of people they are where you are at.

I have not very much to write now, Sweet Heart, but hope to have more news for you next time I write. I wish you good luck in getting acquainted with the people and hope you will have a good time. But always Remember one in Arkansas who had never forgotten you and always thinks of you. It matters not where you may be. But don't never read the album you had when last I saw you and enjoyed myself with one whom I trust to be true to me now and forever as my own over
